Free. In this article .Nadi Village Nadi Village () (also known as Dadi Village) is the first of the three inhabited islands in the Nadi township in Fiji's Capital District. It is located in the northeast corner of the District along a spit of land between the sea and the Nadi River. Other inhabited islands include Hanuave and Wadavu, which adjoin this spit of land. In the past few decades, the population of Nadi has increased to more than 12,000 and the population of the island has also increased. Nadi Village is home to a small army base. In times past, Nadi Village could harbor up to 100 canoes, but during the rainy season the canoes normally sit tied up along the shore. During the dry season the fishermen would sail the canoes out to sea to fish. Most of the islands in the capital district are small.
