Adds the ability to add multiple contacts in Gmail without having to upload their vCard.Owls try to reverse course, again They are still in the race, but the unbeaten Monmouth Hawks won't be winning any fans on the road after getting beaten on the road by the struggling Lewis-Palmer Wildcats 72-63. The last win for the Monmouth Hawks came on December 30th, when they defeated the McMichael Vikings 84-58. The game was played at the McMichael Center. Now the Hawks play at the Breslin Center, which was completed in the summer of 2007. Nate Ewing, McMichael's star wing player from last year's team, sat out due to an injury. It has been a rough week for the Hawks. In the first game on Tuesday, the Hawks had to rally from a double digit deficit in the second half to beat Mahanoy City 59-53. But it was the first game of the year and the Hawks have beaten Mahanoy many times before. A few days later, the Hawks traveled to Colton to play the defending state champion Loveland Red Hawks. The loveless four game series was broken up by intermission and the two teams were at opposite ends of the court. Both teams had the lead only to see the score get away from them and both teams found themselves trailing by two or more points. That is how the Hawks lost that game to the Red Hawks 86-74. The Hawks were able to get a few steals and turnovers in the third quarter, but then the Red Hawks started playing more cleanly and picked up their 3-point shooting. Even though the Hawks had to play behind the shot clock, they were able to keep the Red Hawks away from the basket with help defense and a solid back-up offense.
