Walking the Labyrinth Walking the Labyrinth is an event, created by the Mission of Saint Joseph, that unites pilgrims of all backgrounds to life-changing experience with the wisdom of the ages. Each year (except for the winter) thousands of pilgrims gather for the opening of the Meditation Trail, a week-long series of contemplative retreats. Over the five days, a pilgrimage of solidarity is formed so that all can immerse themselves in the peace and beauty of the sacred healing paths. Most of the works of art featured in the Museum are housed in the fields and collections of the Catholic community of the Mission of St. Joseph. For over 100 years the Mission and its surrounding properties have been the place of prayer and pilgrimage for people from all over the world. The Art Museum, situated on the campus of the Mission, was founded in 1955. Located on the banks of Lake Michigan, the twenty-one galleries of the museum are filled with drawings, paintings and sculptures representing the finest art from the United States and Europe. Along with Gallery One (special displays) and the Education Center, the museum hosts weekly art walks where patrons can discover and purchase original art and appreciate common and modern art. About Labyrinth Centers Walking the Labyrinth is presented by the Labyrinth Centers of the Holy Father, the Most Rev. Michael Joseph Pallotta, Bishop of Rensselaer, Troy and Holy Cross Diocese. Each year the same event takes place in Rensselaer, Troy, Dundee, New York and in the Diocesan Headquarters at Croton-on-Hudson. There are also labyrinths located all over the state of New York. In fact, these centers are spreading all over the United States, in cities like: Los Angeles (California); Detroit, Chicago (Illinois); Philadelphia, Wilmington, N.C. (North Carolina); Boston, Providence and Lexington, Mass. (Massachusetts); Seattle, Bellevue, Wash., and Eau Claire, Wisconsin (Wisconsin); Denver, Colo.; Oklahoma City
