PROOF OF CONCEPT IS IN STOCK!

We're very happy to announce that we're getting a quick look at an early version of the game! This is something that hasn't been properly launched publicly yet - so this is an early look, and isn't necessarily representative of what will be in the full game. But it's still a great way for us to get feedback, give people a chance to try out some of the mechanics, and figure out how we can make things even better in the full version of the game.

This particular promo copy contains a limited number of key items in a special edition casket, bound together with darkmatter fused by the power of Lograr the Elder. When you take the casket, you can carry it with you and drop the items whenever you want. This will be your permanent inventory. When you
