It was great fun, but I feel the replay value is somewhat lacking. I never ran into anyone wearing gear I didn't have. That being said, I'd like to see some kind of content update in order for me to put even more effort into it for a higher level build. If I came across a build that I really liked that I had never built yet, I would think about picking it up and making some changes to it. There were several places where I had to stop and think which build would be a better fit to use. I'd be willing to bet that most of them would end up being even better than the original build. Arcane Symbol Great all around build, but I do like the Arcane Symbol extremely well and can easily swap my allies to a different one. Arcane Symbol is great for pulling off raids, but I feel it could use a slight reskin.

The best thing about it is the buff to your friends attack and magic attack in addition to your own damage. This would require a slight buff to the Sentinel weapon as well. I found that the Sentinel with Arcane Symbol attacked faster and cast spells faster than other builds. My only issue with Arcane Symbol is that the runes are rather small and it is easy to draw by accident. I hope that with the update Arcane Symbol will be able to be given the same treatment as Arcane Archimandrix, as the big fonts on the latter game makes drawing that much easier. Arcane Archimandrix Awesome for Sentinel builds and almost unbeatable if you can get the right runes. For me the runes are a bit too difficult to do. Mystic weapon I think this one is a nice to have but not a necessity. Like Arcane Symbol, it could use a slight buff to its attack and magic attack numbers. Other weapon Ditto on the comment above. It's great for a Sentinel build and I do like it a lot but I can't get any runes for it. Overall the build was awesome, but since it's lacking a Sentinel weapon, I just decided to give it the old noob treatment. Runes I ended up keeping this one even though I don't like it very much. It's for the Arcane Archimandrix build, and with the exception of one stone, everything here is a stunner. The one exception is the Spiritual Stone bff6bb2d33
