“TeamTalk” allows friends to play the same game online, chat and voice their virtual teammates in real-time. “Kit Movement Technology” will enable the real-life movement of players’ kits and boots to track their position in-game. Players will also be able to transfer the unique head and neck movements of their real-life movements to their avatar. “New Player Experience” features include a new tutorial, improvements to the match engine, stats, and communication options. The new tutorial allows players to learn some of the most important tactics, formations and tactics available in FIFA. “Tap & Go” is a new decision system within the game. The new system allows the player to unlock and automatically play cards from their deck of cards to take advantage of particular situations and objects on the field. “Soccer the way you Play” introduces a new “Quick Start” Menu that takes the player from start-up to his chosen team within the first 30 seconds of play. “Introducing the Star Players” gives a visual and audio profile of the most-highlighted players in real-life and the corresponding players in the game. “MyClub: Your Virtual Team” will allow the player to unlock every player from a specific country, team or club using a particular card collection. “My Club” is a new feature that allows the user to create a “club” of players that belong to a specific team. The player can then create and manage his own team and compete with clubs in weekly domestic and international competitions. “Precision Passing and

Shooting” uses a new player control method, allowing users to individually manipulate player positioning and movement when passing or shooting. “Innovation in Player Models” includes over 150 new player skins, over 60 new cleats, over 40 new boots, over 30 new boots, and over 250 new player animations. “Exhibition Match” allows players to participate in a full friendly match with the top player in the world from the team of his choice. “Match Day” allows the player to play through the full starting lineup of the team of his choice in an exhibition match. “New Real Player Movement” features new animation and movement for real-life players,

Game Modes:

Career | Live the dream as both a manager and a player in FIFA 22 Career.

The "360 Mode" is a new player mode that places players in immersive online game environments. The biggest teams, players and stadia are recreated in VR to immerse you in an authentic matchday experience. There are TWO modes available: Online 1 vs. 1 Mode, a great introduction to FIFA if you do not have any friends to play with; and Online 2 vs. 2 Mode. This is very suitable for multiplayer games with one main option for most FUT tournaments (e.g. Team of the Season).

What's new in Fifa 22:

- PLAYER MOVEMENT - Pre-contact and post-contact motion are influenced by how hard a player attacks the ball, making speed and power an integral part of ball control. Players move freely without colliding with each other for the first time in the franchise.
- 50N5 FUT PLAY - Sees action move from full pitch width to narrow down where each player is on the field, for a shorter, faster gameplay experience.
