Description The Pioneer Trail is designated as an official east-west commuter route and is one of the most popular cycling routes in Toronto. It crosses the Humber River, along the northern edge of the city. It runs from the Avenue Rd and Old Weston Rd junction (in a north-east direction), west along the former Highway 401 route, and through the Pioneer Village (at the Humber), along the former Lakeshore Road, and from there through north-eastern Scarborough to the CNR line at Birchmount Rd (in a north-west direction). The southern-most segment is connected to the CNR line near St Clair Avenue and Greenwood Road.

North of the CNR line, the
