Well, this is it. The end of the world as we know it. The end of our life as previously lived. I'm collecting a group of Rose and Steve friends here and we're starting off the season with one of our favorite go-tos. Have you ever had a problem that so irritated you that you decided that you just needed to blow it up? I mean just plow right into it and smash anything around you? You know I'd listed twenty whoppers at the time that I was supposed to be there where I was given this job. I had researched them. I had known them cold and I asked one of my earlier bosses and I said this is what I'm gonna do with this job because I just didn't believe they would hire me because they automatically thought of me as the little ass who sits there with the big
