Drums of War Music by Curses! Walking through the park one day, he came across a strange musical instrument: a Curses! x.DRE 4.0 Wobble Wah MMB Tube Guitar, with Sonorous Xtension Cassette Players / A Great Sound. Along with it were six or more riffs of strange and unfamiliar sounds, all somehow coming to be from an unusual source. It looked far too cumbersome to be easy to carry around, and the sound was amazing. When he looked at the manual, however, he was appalled at what he saw. "Chord changes! I don't want chord changes!" he thought to himself. And the strange music stopped in its tracks. But weeks, months later, he came to wonder about that. And the thought echoed in his head. "Maybe I can use it to make music!" So he ventured forth, to see if he could. And on a spring day in the distant future, he did. And his performance impressed everyone. And the people loved it! And that's how the story of Musical Man begins. Presenting Music... and Man. Curses! Escape! Dance! With the new Order of the
