“The fact that we’ve been able to use real data from real players to create a more realistic experience for our fans makes this a very exciting time for us at EA SPORTS,” said Peter Moore, executive vice president of Marketing at EA SPORTS. “As the world’s biggest football franchise, we know that FIFA is all about creativity, so we’re absolutely determined to introduce both new ways to play, and new ways for people to interact with the game. The launch of FIFA on mobile, and with ‘HyperMotion’ technology now available on PlayStation 4, is going to empower us to deliver something truly special for football fans everywhere.” Features include: FIFA Ultimate Team ‘Ultimate Blitz’ mode: Decide who has the hotshot moves in FIFA Ultimate Team before the game begins. Unleash your team’s stars in the most high-octane mode of Ultimate Blitz. Choose your own XI: Take over the park and play matches with any 11 on your side. Fantastic new ways to play on PS4: Players can now continue their journey with Lionel Messi, Cristiano Ronaldo, Neymar, Kylian Mbappe, Eden Hazard, Eden Hazard and Romelu Lukaku in the “Play as Your Favorite Team” mode on PS4. The FIFA Mobile™ Championship League kicks off on October 20. FIFA Mobile will also include a brand-new Fantastic Four-inspired mode. Earn FIFA Points as you increase your power through the tournament. Go for the win, and unlock your favorite character. “The decision to launch FIFA Mobile with the brand new FIFA 22 experience was a no brainer, as it allows us to leverage FIFA Ultimate Team in the already popular mobile game market. As players get closer to FIFA 22, we know they will be looking for new ways to play FIFA Mobile,” said Conor Loftus, Executive Producer, FIFA Mobile. “By offering our mobile audience the same gameplay as the console players, we believe we are giving them a unique experience. We couldn’t be more excited about the possibilities of the mobile platform, which is why we’re leading the way with the very first FIFA Mobile Championship league.” HIGHLIGHTS New City of Champions Mode: In City of Champions Mode you’ll experience 10 of your favorite superstars in a series of knockout matches on
