TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras — The Honduran attorney general requested an immediate investigation on Thursday to determine whether gang members have infiltrated the small caravan of migrants trying to reach the United States. The request, which came after a massive manhunt and after a caravan leader was arrested on murder charges, was seen as an effort by the new government of President Juan Orlando Hernández to deflect attention from the massive migrant caravan traveling through Central America toward the United States. Guatemalan police arrested a 19-year-old Honduran man on Thursday who they said was wanted in the Mayan massacre of four women and five children in western Honduras. Salvadoran officers arrested another 19-year-old man, also with a history of violent crimes, later on Thursday, Interpol said, without disclosing the country. Both men were wanted in the Mayan massacre that killed five immigrants and left 16 wounded, according to the U.N.'s migration agency, the I.N.C. The Guatemalan man, Mario Arturo Medina, was arrested late Thursday morning after he left his house with his girlfriend. He was wearing a T-shirt with the message "Murderer" and was held at the U.N. refugee agency's detention center, a security official said.Q: Не могу найти тер в React Мне нужно вывести на страницу сайта содержимое подключенной библиотеки (js/app.js), через специальный компонент JSX.
