It has been applied in determining the cross section for CO+pellets collision in the range of 4 - 600 a.m.u. of incident energy. CO+p recoil cross sections for the same energy range have been also obtained by means of the LIZ formula. By these experiments the nuclear and atomic physics input data have been checked. The experimental results of both types of calculations are in good agreement with each other.A process is underway at the Vatican for appointing a bishop of the country's smallest diocese, which belongs to the nation of the Holy See, but could soon belong to the Church's bishops. The Vatican's Congregation for the Clergy is slated to meet in Rome on January 7 and 8 to debate a bid to appoint Bishop Fabian Melamed of the Phoenix diocese of the Ecumenical
