Hooray! Everyone can be normal again! If you've been avoiding the madding crowds this holiday, perhaps you need some tall glasses of cranberry juice. If you've been avoiding the massive amount of images and words crammed into the advertising space near you, perhaps you need some more images and words, preferably ones that also fit into the tiny space in which you are reading this. 648 Napoleon Dynamite (Jon Heder) is not one of the popular students at his school, instead his unusual ways have made him somewhat of an outcast. But he remains true to himself, hunting wolverines, learning bo staff skills, and drawing fantasy animals, but that is just the start. A new student named Pedro (Efren Ramirez) arrives and strikes up an instant friendship with Napoleon, who guides him in the ways of romance and social status. Soon Pedro is engaged in a race for class president against Summer, the most popular girl around.

Mike Coen (Jon Heder) is a high school outcast living in a small town. He has no friends, job prospects are limited, and he has a rather lethal sense of humor. Wanting to escape the life he's living, he goes on a one-way trip to summer camp, where he meets Pedro (Efren Ramirez) and the two make new friends. After accidentally killing a moose in front of his house, Napoleon is kicked out of his house by his parents and loses his car while fleeing for the border. He soon meets a lawyer named Kip (Michael Rosenbaum), who offers to help him go to \"jail school\" and gives him a place to stay.

After being hounded by Kip's family, Napoleon sneaks into a wedding and accidentally wastes the groom, and is kicked out of jail school. Hilarity ensues, and Napoleon tries to join the army, which is the last thing he wants to do. He's soon drafted by the U.S. Army and sent to Alaska to fight the Russians for control of the North Pole. With his new friends by his side, Napoleon soon encounters a Russian spy named Rasputin (Jeffrey Dean Morgan) and his friend Sgt.

Hatred (Dave Franco). Hilarity, comedy, danger, excitement, romance, and the occasional sports idea occur as Napoleon tries to navigate his future in the Army and make his way to the North Pole. 5ec8ef588b
