TomatoTimer provides you with a complete solution for those who want to manage their work and break schedule using the Pomodoro Technique. With it, you can create, edit, or delete custom timers; view available timers; and easily track time intervals and intervals remaining for the current session. Moreover, the application displays taskbar icons with the current progress of the current session. You can easily control it by hovering over the taskbar icon. TomatoTimer is available as a free download. However, you need to pay for TomatoTimer Pro for the full version. You can purchase TomatoTimer Pro for just $3.50 USD / $5.00 AUD / $7.50 GBP. This program will warn the user if it detects that the battery is critically low. At this point, the user should run the computer on batteries for a few minutes to recharge the battery. Once the battery is recharged, the program can be safely uninstalled.

Airdrop for Mac is a file sharing software that facilitates file transfer between two or more Mac computers or Mac devices connected to a network. Unlike other file sharing programs, Airdrop is a powerful tool that lets you drag and drop files directly to the destination Mac. How to Use: Airdrop is a simple, straightforward, and well-organized app with a clean interface. Once the app is installed, you are ready to begin file transfer. To get started, you will need to open Airdrop, which is typically found under Applications. Once the program is open, select the device to be shared with the destination machine. Select files, folders, and even network printers if you have them. You can even select more than one destination by clicking on the + sign. A window will open, where you will have to select what kind of information you want to share. Click on the file or folder to begin the transfer process. Once you have selected the files, click on the "Drop" button. Once you have dropped the files onto the destination Mac, it will ask you to provide the authentication details. If you have already provided these details, click the "OK" button. Once the process is completed, you can close the window and continue to use your Mac as usual. System Requirements For TomatoTimer:

In an effort to increase the number of players in Legends of Aria: Shattered Memories, the port has been optimized. That means the game will load much faster, the framerate is higher, and the game should run better. Please note that the game does not come with a controller. Note that the game uses heavy file sizes due to the 2D engine. This version also fixes a number of bugs. The list of known issues can be found on the game's changelog page.
