. For Windows, Mac and Linux. Adobe After Effects., as the grader has no authority to make changes in connection with the plans submitted. The only function of the grader is to check the plans submitted for conformity with the terms and conditions and the provisions of the Ordinance. *31 The Supreme Court held that it was not a valid exercise of police power to compel a person to sell property to another person without payment of the fair value. The court also held that the use of the words "for the public" in the clause "no person shall make, sell, offer for sale, place or offer to place... for the public" meant that such sales must be made by public officers and must be made by fair and bona fide bids. In our view, there is no language in the Ordinance which is similar to that condemned by the Supreme Court of Indiana. Section 18-7 of the Ordinance prohibits the granting of any variance for the purpose of establishing a home business use. The contract between plaintiff and defendant does not call for a variation of the standard lot size, size of buildings or number of buildings. Hence, no variance is contemplated by the contract. The Ordinance is not vague and ambiguous. A person of ordinary intelligence can grasp the meaning of the ordinance. The concept of that the plaintiff is to build one single-family dwelling, a minimum of 20,000 square feet, is fairly well understood. By signing the contract, the plaintiff consented to the provisions of the Ordinance and bound himself to build a minimum of 20,000 square feet. We find no error in the order of the trial court. Affirmed. WEBB and HARRIS, JJ., concur.
